An Encouraging Spring

Those months came and went by quickly. We had our usual Sunday services, monthly events, and some local events that we joined. We were still getting visitors and meeting new people. Our church really enjoys learning from God's Word and taking in everything.

Visit from WWNTBM

Our mission agency's general director, Jeremy Lockhart, was in the area and stopped by to visit. It was his first time seeing our church since our inception, and it's also a first for him to see a deaf church. He said that he learned much just from visiting and his presence was a huge motivation for me to keep going.

Deaf mini ladies retreat

In March, we hosted our annual mini ladies retreat, which is a half day retreat. Forty nine women from five different states came. We had Bo Struhar from our sending church, to come to speak for us. The theme was "A Rose in His Garden" and it was very beautiful. Everyone there enjoyed it. It is very encouraging to simply be a blessing to others. Even one lady from another church spoke to me afterwards about how wonderful it was and told me to "not give up." That resonated deeply with me.

Deaf revival

We brought our church to a deaf revival about an hour away at Solid Rock Baptist Church in New Jersey. We borrowed a van from Liberty Baptist Church in Philly. It was a big blessing to hear God's Word and for our church to interact with other deaf Christians.

Young girl saved!

We had a family come off and on for more than a year, they have a little girl several years older than our son. She wanted to hang out with my wife during the week. While they were out, she was asking my wife about salvation. After some discussion, she accepted the Lord inside our vehicle! We have been praying for her for a long time, the seeds of the Gospel she has been hearing finally bore fruit. Please pray for her to grow in the Word from this point on.

Deaf Phillies game

One deaf Christian man who doesn't come to church contacted me and offered me some free tickets to the Phillies baseball game related to a deaf fundraiser for the deaf school in Philadelphia. He brought a bunch of tickets but some people couldn't join anymore so he gave them to me instead. We met a lot of deaf people from around the area during tailgating and at the game. Some of them have an interest in our deaf church and we exchanged contacts from this event. Please pray that those relationships will develop further and they'll be open to the Gospel.

Easter

Our Easter service went great, I was able to preach on having victory over death through Christ and how we can have a victorious mindset in our daily lives. We did have more people than usual. For our Sunday school that day, we had an open Bible questionnaire, they were able to ask any Bible-related question and I gave them answers out of Scripture. I love doing that since it presents a good challenge to me to answer on the spot and we had good discussions on multiple topics. I could tell that they enjoyed it immensely.
